

Badenweiler – Aqua Villae

THE ROMAN BATH

The Roman Bath Ruins of Badenweiler are one of the largest and most impressive facilities of its kinds north of the Alps. It was excavated in 1784 under Margrave Karl Friedrich of Baden and is since then an attraction to visitors. Today it is protected by an architectural extraordinarily interesting glass roof reminding modern spa town Badenweiler of its roots as a Roman Bath.

CASSIOPEIA THERMAL BATH

3,800 sqm health and wellness under one roof. Water – Source of health. Refined ambiance, generous architecture. Thermal baths with over 1,000 square meters of water surface. Sauna bathing with a view of nature. Wellness from 1001 night. Spa and sauna bathing perfectly combined in the Roman-Irish Bath. Pamper your mind, body and soul in an environment inspired by a spa tradition enduring more than 2000 years.

ON THE SUNNY SIDE OF BLACK FOREST

Badenweiler is located on the foothills of the southern part of Black Forest. Mild air flows from the South, the Black Forest itself protects the town from cold winds and temperature variation. Explore this unique climate and enjoy the wonderful surroundings of the area in the border triangle Germany, Switzerland, and France.

HIKING, SPORTS POOL & ACTIVITIES

Enjoy Cycling, Hiking, Nordic walking or playing Golf between high Black Forest fir trees and sun-drenched vineyards. Nature will give new energy to your body and refresh the soul. The Black Forest with its deep valleys, densely forested hills and picturesque villages invites you for a day trip. The French Alsace region and the Swiss city of Basle are also not far away.
