

Chianciano Terme

ROMAN HERITAGE

Chianciano Terme has been famous for its healing thermal waters since Roman times. Even the poet Horace – who is said to have coined the phrase “Carpe Diem” – came here for a drinking cure. Remains of a Roman villa, a thermal bath and a cistern are historic evidences of these times. Learn more about Roman and Etruscan life in “Museo delle Acqua” with its impressive collection of historic items.

TERME DI CHIANCIANO

Terme di Chianciano offers medical and wellness treatments with thermal waters known for their extraordinary healing powers. Enjoy a journey for all senses in the new Sensory Spa, where classic spa treatments meet oriental philosophies. Take a swim in the 36 °C warm thermal waters in Theia Thermal Pools or go for a stroll through the beautiful Acqua Santa Park. Don't miss to drink the soothing thermal water.

ENJOY TUSCANY

Cypresses, gently rolling hills, romantic villages and farms – that is the beautiful Tuscan landscape surrounding Chianciano Terme, which is located in Tuscany in the heart of Italy. The old town of Chianciano Terme was built on a hill, which offers a beautiful view over the landscape. It combines all elements of a Tuscan historic town: piazzas, a clock tower and several churches.

WORLD-CLASS CULTURE

The Leaning Tower of Pisa, Ponte Vecchio and Florence Cathedral or the historic cities of Lucca and Siena: Thanks to Chianciano Terme's attractive location, these world-class sights can be reached in maximum two hours. Also benefit from the famous Tuscan cuisine and wine.

Terme di Chianciano, Tuscany, Italy

Thermal spa experience with Tuscany flair

Terme di Chianciano is located in Tuscany on the border to Umbria, 50 km south-east of Siena and 160 km north of Rome. Chianciano was built on a hill and offers many historical buildings, the Museum of Water, restaurants, cafés and thermal baths. The thermal waters of Thermal Spa of Chianciano are specialized in liver therapy. Acqua Santa Park offers drinking cures to counteract especially gastro-enteric ailments. In its heart there is the new Sensory Spa where classic treatments meet oriental philosophies: saunas, Turkish bath, ice crash, beauty mud treatments are just a few services. The Theia Thermal Spa Pools with a temperature of approx. 36°C are ideal for wellness and enjoyment with 4 outdoor and 3 indoor pools.
